

Underage patron at Chalmers library

If you are under 18 years of age, you must have your legal guardian's written consent to get a library account at Chalmers library. You must prove your identity with photo identification.

When you create a library account, you agree to follow the terms of use of the library that you agreed to when you created your account.

- Your login details to the library's resources are personal and may not be disclosed.
- You are personally responsible for your loans and may not lend the material to others.
- You are responsible for reporting a change of address and e-mail.

Late return and damaged books

If you do not return a book after the fourth reminder, we regard the book as lost, and your library account will be blocked. Your block will be lifted when you have paid an administration fee of SEK 200 and SEK 600 for the book. If you return the book, you only pay the administration fee.

Damaged books are replaced with a standard fee of SEK 600.

I have taken note of the terms of use for Chalmers library and undertake to follow them
